

Implementation Conference PRACTICAL DETAILS

- Date and time: 24-26 August 2002, 9am – 6pm each day. Evening events on Saturday 24 August (Drum Café & Braai) and Sunday, 25 August (Conference Dinner).
- RSVP: By 5.00 pm (UK time), 18 July 2002.
- Conference venue: Indaba Hotel, William Nicol Drive, Witkoppen (North Bryanston), Tel +27 11 465 1400, indaba@indabahotel.co.za.
- Conference expenses: No registration fee
- Accreditation: There is no need for accreditation for the IC. Attendance at the IC is not connected to accreditation to the Johannesburg Summit or the NGO Global Forum.
- Travel expenses: To be paid by participants. Contact Stakeholder Forum under exceptional circumstances.
- Visas: All participants should check their specific visa requirements.
- Accommodation: To be arranged by participants. A limited number of rooms are provided through Stakeholder Forum for participants for the period of the IC. Alternatively contact Audri Joao of Global Conferences DMC (Tel +27 11 463 4300, audri@wssddmc.co.za), mention that you are attending the Implementation Conference.
- Accommodation expenses: To be paid by participants. Contact Stakeholder Forum under exceptional circumstances.
- Other services: There are no plans to make crèche facilities available. Check www.worldsummit.org.za for a listing of the available information and facilities.
- Ground rules for participation: You should expect to attend the full three days of the IC. If this is likely to present a problem, please contact us.
- Stakeholder Forum contact details: 7 Holyrood Street, London SE1 2EL; UK. Email for general participation enquiries: Michael Burke, Tel +44 20 7089 4305; Fax +44 20 7089 4310; mburke@earthsummit2002.org web www.earthsummit2002.org/ic and www.stakeholderforum.org

Directions to Indaba Hotel: From the Johannesburg-Sandton area, take William Nichol Drive. Cross the N1 Highway and continue north a further 4.1 km. Cross the Witkoppen Road, pass the Fourways Shopping Mall on your left, and keep an eye out for the Indaba Hotel on your left. See map below.

